9
10 MELANIE CHANTELL LATRONICA,
11 Plaintiff,
12 v.
13 MORRISON C. ENGLAND, et al.,
14 Defendants.

Case No. 16-cv-02870-RS

ORDER DISMISSING COMPLAINT

15 Plaintiff Melanie Chantell Latronica filed a complaint against numerous governmental 16 entities, public officials, private corporations, and people. Her complaint did not establish that 17 federal subject-matter jurisdiction exists so that this court may resolve this matter. Moreover, the 18 precise nature of Latronica's claims was impossible to discern. To clarify these matters, Latronica 19 was ordered to show cause why the case should not be dismissed by July 1, 2016.

20 In response to the order, Latronica mailed the court numerous documents, photos, letters, 21 and website printouts. Also included in this stack of documents was an envelope labeled "bloody 22 exhibit," "rape," and "biohazard." Authorities were contacted and the documents have been 23 confiscated and destroyed. Even a cursory review of the documents confirmed that they do not 24 clarify the nature of Latronica's claims or establish federal subject-matter jurisdiction. Although 25 Latronica requested an in-person hearing on July 21, 2016, no such hearing will take place 26 because her complaint is dismissed with prejudice for lack of subject-matter jurisdiction and 27 failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.
